

The Scriptures continually emphasize the importance of having faith in God.

Prov. 3:5 (NIV) “Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding.” This was the first verse I ever recognized that the Lord was directly speaking to me. It has become one of my life verses.

II Cor. 5:7 (NAS) “For we walk by faith, not by sight.”

Gal. 2:20b (Amp) “The life I now live in the body I live by faith [by adhering to, relying on, and completely trusting] in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me.”

Why don't we use the spiritual gifts or use them more? Some people don't believe that the gifts are for today. But nowhere in the Scriptures does it say that the gifts ended when the last apostle died. Throughout history whenever revival happened, the gifts became more evident. Some don't know we can have the gifts or believe the gifts are for today but not for them. The gifts are for every believer activated by the Holy Spirit at the right moment to demonstrate His love through the gifts, bless the body of Christ, and show that Jesus is alive. We miss many opportunities, question if it is Him. But His grace is sufficient for our every need. It is a lifelong process learning to listen to the still small voice of God. Jesus is the only one who got it right every time. We may also be afraid of being embarrassed. Fear is the number one weapon of the enemy to try and stop us from stepping out in faith and obeying God. I heard a very wise pastor, greatly used in God's healing ministry, say in the past, “We need to get used to being uncomfortable.” That is how our faith grows and He is able to use us to a greater extent. We are on a great adventure with our Lord that will not end until our work here is done and He takes us home to be with Him forever. In the meantime He has much work for each of us to do in and through Him in furthering His kingdom here on earth

When Cathy was preaching about Station 411 on 4/11/21 the Lord took me back to this prophetic word and I felt led to share it.

2/22/19 around 11:00 pm prophecy

A gale force wind is coming to Tarentum. I'm sending My angel to blow the trumpet and it will be as a gale force wind. I could see the giant Angel standing at an angle, kind of one foot in the park and one foot on the river. It was up river blowing the horn down river towards the church. He said everything that can be shaken will be shaken. Everything that can be moved will be moved but not to be afraid (because it was a bit scary) because My Church is covered in prayer. I was reminded of Dayspring. He said My Church is gold. And it looked real clean and shiny after the wind blew past it. Then I saw thousands, maybe millions of little seeds all over Tarentum that Greg had planted. He said the enemy has tried to dig them up and pull them out but he can't. All those little tiny seeds are still there and the sacrifices and the tears of the family have been watering them and they can't be uprooted. He said My Church is Holy. Every pillar (us) of My Church is Holy, those seeds are Holy, and those tears and sacrifices are Holy. Then He gave the analogy of what Valora said about that witch's presence being like kryptonite to her when she was a little girl and she couldn't stand near her. But He flipped it and the enemy won't be able to stand. The wind will blow Tarentum clean and the enemy will just be like a vapor puddles on the ground to be trampled. Miracle upon miracle upon miracle will be coming out of that place. Too numerous to count. Too numerous to write down. He said it's true. I am giving you My Word.
